

AFACT

Association of Fire and Casualty Companies in Texas

Contact

Mark Hanna
(512) 326-7616

For Immediate Release

January 3, 2008

Vanek Elected President of AFACT

Greg Vanek of Waco was elected president of the Association of Fire and Casualty Companies in Texas (AFACT) for the 2008-2009 term during the Nov. 6 annual meeting in Dallas. Vanek is the president and chief executive officer of National Lloyds and American Summit Insurance Companies, known as NLASCO.

Craig Sparks, president of Union Standard Insurance Company in Dallas, was elected vice-president. Lyndell Haigood, regional vice-president of State Auto Insurance Company in Wichita Falls, was elected secretary/treasurer.

Gina Boone, assistant vice-president and associate counsel at Republic Insurance Group in Dallas, was elected director at large and past president Dianne Morris, president of Association Casualty Insurance Company, will serve as a director.

Alton Thomas, a retired insurance company executive, will continue in the position of AFACT executive manager.

“For the past 65 years AFACT has worked with our legislative leaders in building a strong, reliable property and casualty industry in Texas,” said Vanek. “We will continue to take an active role in supporting issues that benefit both consumers and the insurance industry.”

AFACT is a trade organization representing Texas property and casualty insurance companies. It was founded in 1941 to broaden consumer knowledge of insurance and support legislation to improve the insurance business.

For more information about AFACT turn to its Web site at AFACT.net.

###